OUR JOURNEY...

Our beautiful town, Shrewsbury is steeped in history with timber framed buildings around every corner.

The WYLE BLUE Courtyard and blueBAR Garden are surrounded by the historic medieval town walls, with views across the River Severn, the famous Shrewsbury Abbey and beyond.

Our own Elizabethan timber framed building has it's own wonderful story to tell. It has been a home and business for centuries...

1836 – 1841	William Sellman	Tinman and Brazier
1841 – 1844	Sellman and Crumpton	Tinman and Braziers
1844 – 1856	Jonathan Crumpton	Tinplate worker, Brazier and Ironmonger
1861 – 1871	Williams Williams	China and Earthenware Dealer
1877 – 1882	Shropshire Yeomanry	Cavalry Office
1887 – 1893	Mr Linley	Grocer
1891 – 1893	John C Bowdler	Assistant overseer to the poor (resident over the Grocers shop)
1895 – 1912	J Baker and Sons	Shoe and Boot Shop
1912 – 1921	J A S Baker and Sons	Boot Makers
1921 – 1958	UNKNOWN
1958 – 2017	Mrs Purslowe	Same Day Dry Cleaners
2017 – present day	Belinda Griffiths	WYLE BLUE WORLD

When the Same Day Dry Cleaners opened their doors in 1958, sweethearts Maureen and Denis (my mum and dad) rode over 400 miles from Eastleigh in Hampshire to Shrewsbury on their tandem, stopping at Same Day Dry Cleaners asking for directions to the local Youth hostel. Who would have thought 60 years later, I would be opening the door of WYLE BLUE WORLD in the very same building. The next chapter of this historic building continues...
